

IJME: DIFFERENTIAL SLABS FOR REPRINT CHARGES

	CATEGORY OF REPRINT	% DISCOUNT	FINAL PRICE
1	As per our established policy since 1993, we do not charge anything for reprint in books or in any other media for non-commercial use.	100%	Nil
2	Articles less than 5000 words (inclusive of references) Articles which the Working Editors/Editor decides (on a case to case basis) are of landmark importance and should get wide circulation and exposure among different constituencies of readers (despite having more than 5000 words)	50%	5,000
3	Articles requested for inclusion in edited (commercial) volumes, but is justified that is of limited budget (e.g. part of a specific grant, etc.), and the editor is part of our own larger network of fellow bioethicists (???) – especially if the publisher is based in India or in other developing countries	25%	7,500
4	Edited volumes for commercial use published by houses based in the US, UK and other First World countries Edited volumes for commercial use published by houses based elsewhere but which do not make any requests for price reduction	–	10,000