Ethical distancing in the pandemic

GANESH SINGH DHARMASHAKTU

While science is busy,
Breaking new ground;
The lie has a field day.

Before truth,
Can find maps,
Rumour roams the world.

Before the fact
Is conceived,
Misconception is born.

Before the bona fide
Tests the water,
The bogus soaks your senses.

Before evidence is served,
Half-baked truths
Are sold out.

All this is absurd,
The “infodemic”

Is a parallel war.
For all to see,
Inside posts, tweets,
Apps or blogs.

That we can
Fight with nothing…
But distance.

Let’s not fall
Before those facts;
False and fickle.

With data,
Sanitised,
And ethically clean.

Let being ethical block
The viral stream,
Be the new normal.

As our searing rejection,
Breaks the chain,
Of everything mala fide.

Author: Ganesh Singh Dharmashaktu (dirganeshortho@gmail.com), Associate Professor, Department of Orthopaedics, Government Medical College, Haldwani, Uttarakhand, 263 139 INDIA.

Published online on November 19, 2021.
Manuscript Editor: Rakhi Ghoshal

Copyright and license
© Indian Journal of Medical Ethics 2022: Open Access and Distributed under the Creative Commons license [CC BY-NC-ND 4.0], which permits only non-commercial and non-modified sharing in any medium, provided the original author(s) and source are credited.