

11TH NATIONAL BIOETHICS CONFERENCE

Clinical Ethics in India

Strengthening Trust in Changing Times

CALL FOR WORKSHOP AND SYMPOSIUM PROPOSALS

For the last 20 years, the National Bioethics Conference (NBC) has fostered dialogue and debate on critical ethical issues in global health, whilst maintaining an intersectional and inter-disciplinary lens to these discussions.

The organising committee, 11th National Bioethics Conference (NBC), is pleased to invite proposals for organising workshops/symposiums at the 11th NBC .

Proposals must be relevant to topics from bioethics, including but not limited to the conference theme and sub-themes. Submissions that bring critical, novel discussions to these themes, and those that describe research findings or project outcomes will be considered by the Scientific Programme Committee and the Organising Committee.

The Scientific Committee will review the abstracts based on the following criteria:

1. Relevance to the subject of bioethics and the conference
2. Perceived interest of the peer community
3. Well-defined and focused objectives
4. Scientific, technical, and philosophical excellence
5. Potential impact and value for participants/attendees

Selected proposals will be scheduled during the main conference as parallel sessions between the opening plenaries and closing plenaries on the main conference days: Friday, Saturday and Sunday, January 22, 23 and 24, 2027.

Important Information:

- Last date for submission: Monday, September 21, 2026, 11.59 PM [IST]
- Link for submitting abstracts: <https://submissions.ijme.in/index.php/nbc>
- Decisions of the Scientific Programme Committee and Organising Committee will be final and binding.
- Abstracts submitted through any other channels will not be reviewed.
